Chapter 1 by Gyro

I looked down at my machine satisfied with its craftsmanship. It was made entirely out of metal pulsing with energy. It was solar powered, eco friendly. The panels towering far over my house. The neighbors think I'm crazy and I will be if this doesn't work. I flipped a small switch and the machine and it whirred to life. Two blue lasers shot out and met each other in the air. Where they met a circle started to appear. In front of me a portal started to appear and it slowly grew until it was able to fit me. Then I jumped through.
